2 public when proprietary alternative New Mexico military base
3 realignment or closure strategies or any information regarding 4 relocation of military units is discussed.

5 E. Information developed or obtained by the 6 commission that pertains to proprietary commission strategies
7 or related to the relocation of military units shall be 8 confidential and not subject to inspection pursuant to the 9 Inspection of Public Records Act."

10 Section 3. A new section of the Gross Receipts and 11 Compensating Tax Act is enacted to read:

12 "[NEW MATERIAL] DEDUCTION--COMPENSATING TAX--TEST
13 ARTICLES.--

14 A. The value of test articles upon which research
15 or testing is conducted in New Mexico pursuant to a contract
16 with the United States department of defense may be deducted in 17 computing the compensating tax due.

18 B. As used in this section, "test article" means a 19 material or device upon which research or testing is conducted 20 to determine the properties and qualities of the material or 21 the properties, qualities or functioning of the device or a
22 technology used with the device.

23 C. The deduction provided by this section does not 24 apply to the value of property purchased by a prime contractor 25 operating a facility designated as a national laboratory by an

1 act of congress."

2 Section 4. APPROPRIATION.--Four hundred thousand dollars
3 ($400,000) is appropriated from the general fund to the 4 economic development department for expenditure in fiscal year
5 2005 to study United States department of defense criteria for 6 base realignment and closure and New Mexico's military 7 installations and to develop recommendations for strengthening 8 the state's ability to retain the military installations. Any 9 unexpended or unencumbered balance remaining at the end of 10 fiscal year 2005 shall revert to the general fund.

11 Section 5. EMERGENCY.--It is necessary for the public
12 peace, health and safety that this act take effect immediately.
